

PRESS RELEASE

25th May 2010

REL Pub Company completes on new Eastleigh Bar Site at the Swan Leisure Scheme with three different business brands all under one roof.

The Rel Pub Company have number of new sites completing in the coming months across the UK operating under Break Bar, The Loft and Coffee Republic brands and the team have been working on this scheme to go to market for the past twelve months.

£750,000 is to be spent on the new units in the next two month and a total of twenty five jobs will be created. REL's Break Bar + Restaurant's aim is to be Home from Home environment for relaxation and will include an open fire and a classic British food menu with special dishes created each day from breakfast to dinner. The foods will all be sourced using local ingredients all of which are in season.

Above Break Bar will be The Loft, this will offer a late night lounge which will be open until 0200am and which will also be available for private functions, parties and business events. Next to Break bar will be a coffee republic unit with large outside terrace for seating and dining.

We are recruiting staff currently and welcome CVs for all levels forwarded to our General Manager Dom Lamy at dom@relpubco.com

This is REL's 4th site and we have four more in the pipeline. REL Pub Co Operations Director Jon Badge says " now is an exciting time to expand and open new sites and we are fortunate to have the backing and funds to take advantage of the current opportunities with our exciting concept.

REL is backed by London based REL Capital to acquire 20 sites in the next 2 years. Chief Exec Andy Scott says." We are very pleased to back the new management team for the roll out of Break Bar and be working with Coffee Republic within all of our new units".

The Swan leisure scheme includes a cinema, AMF bowling, Nandos, Frankie and Benny's as well as a number of other new outlets also opening shortly which include Prezzo restaurant.

We would be delighted to arrange interviews with Andy Scott or Jon Badge. For more information please contact jackie@p-pr.co.uk Tel 01202 896698 and ask for Jackie, Jeni or Diana
